Ronald D. Cirksena

1939-2022

Ronald D. Cirksena, 82, formerly of Northfield, MN, passed away peacefully at his home in Sarasota, FL, on Monday, May 9, 2022. Ron was born July 2, 1939, in Grundy Center, IA, to Ray and Jeannette Cirksena. He spent his early years on the family farm near Dike, IA, graduating from Dike High School, and later earning his Master's Degree in Education from the University of Northern Iowa. He went on to enjoy a lifelong career devoted to the field of education, holding teaching positions in Spirit Lake, Iowa, Northfield, Minnesota, and an administrative position in Largo, Florida. Thousands of students over the years in Northfield learned the acronym "Mr. C Irks Every Naughty Adolescent" to remember the spelling of his name.

If you knew Ron, or even crossed his path, you likely became instantly familiar with his kind smile and booming laughter that would fill any room. He was the man who would go out of his way and cross the street to say hello to a stranger. He was a kind, fun soul who quickly and easily found the good in every person he met. Over the years Ron developed a passion for gardening, traveling, visiting with friends and strangers, and he loved to play bridge.

Ron is survived by his husband William Norton; daughters Tia Cirksena and Jane Cirksena, both of Sarasota, FL.; sons Ross Cirksena of Sarasota, FL., and R. Greg Cirksena of Faribault, MN.; grandchildren Alexandra Thompson and Elias Thompson of Sarasota, FL; former spouse Diane Cirksena of Pagosa Springs, CO; sister Donna Joslin of Dike, Iowa, and brother Larry Cirksena of Cedar Falls, IA. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Laura Jeanne Tranbarger

1928-2022

Laura Jeanne Tranbarger passed away peacefully on Friday, April 15, 2022 in Chico, California. "Jeanne" was born January 6, 1928 to Clarence and Estella Keefer in Marshalltown, Iowa. She grew up, along with two sisters, on a farm near Conrad, Iowa. Iowa farms in those days were diversified with animals as well as row crops of corn and soybeans. Jeanne attended school in a one room school house and may have walked a quarter mile down a snow covered lane to catch the school bus. She loved it all.

In 1945, at age 17, Jeanne went off to college at Iowa Wesleyan. That summer she came home to Conrad and met Richard (Dick) Tranbarger, a Navy man home from the war. They both enjoyed dancing, fell in love, and married 6 weeks later on September 1, 1946.

The newlyweds moved to Southern California where Dick was enrolled at USC. Jeanne worked in a doctor's office until her first of 3 children was born in 1949. Her family became her number one joy and commitment. Jeanne and Dick lived in Pico Rivera, Whittier, and Irvine in Southern California, before retiring to Red Bluff, CA in 1985 to be closer to family. Jeanne is survived by her 3 children, Tom (Becky) Tranbarger, Nancy (Linn) Hanson, and Jana Tranbarger; and grandchildren, Brian (Erin) and Todd Tranbarger, Sara (Scott) Seus and Claire (Jeremy) McLean, and Ryan Lofswold.

She also had 6 great grandchildren.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her life-long love, Dick, after 53 years of marriage; sisters, Doris Davis and Marilyn Kell; grandson, Andrew Tranbarger; and infant son Brian Richard Tranbarger. She was loved by her family, and we will forever have fond memories of her. A family graveside service was held at Oak Hill Cemetery, Friday, April 29, 2022.

Scott Allen Zimple

1960-2022

Scott Allen Zimple of Dike, passed away May 12, 2022 in the comfort of his home surrounded by his family.

Scott was born on August 21, 1960 in Waterloo, Iowa to Wayne and Donna Zimple. He met the love of his life a few years later in 1978. He knew on their first date that he would spend the rest of his life with her. He married Jody Mehmen on January 27th of 1979, and did spend the rest of his life adoring her.

Scott spent his time enjoying fishing trips and camping, especially with his son and grandsons. He loved football, and his Green Bay Packers. He loved taking his granddaughter to look for loons at the nearest lake. Together they named their favorite "Henrietta Coffee". Scott loved a good Nascar race, and he may have enjoyed the fact that it put his daughters to sleep even more. One of Scott's favorite things was to watch corn being harvested.

Scott worked as an Operations Manager for over 30 years, leaving the profession in 2015. Scott served on the Dike Fire Department for over 10 years, some of that time he was the Assistant Chief. After his long career, he decided to join his son at his lawn care and landscaping company. Scott always enjoyed mowing his lawn, he was meticulous about it and never had the same mow pattern as his neighbors! He retired in August of 2021 after receiving a devastating diagnosis of small cell lung cancer.

Scott fought his cancer for months in the hopes of making it to his oldest granddaughters' high school graduation. Unfortunately, the cancer had other plans and took him three days prior to the graduation ceremony.

Scott Zimple was loved by everyone he met. He was a truly good man, with a heart of pure gold. He was deeply involved in his children and grandchildren's lives until the very end.

Scott is survived by his wife of 43 years, Jody Zimple of Dike; Daughter, Heather Staton of Stout; Son and Daughter in law Casey and Hannah Zimple of Cedar Falls; Bonus Daughter Ashley Henry of Waterloo; Bonus Son Ty Vandehaar of Independence; Sister, Colleen (Joe) Kelly of St. Paul; brother Dave (Brenda) Zimple of North Liberty; and most importantly six grandchildren; Leila, Gracelynn, Memphis, Spencer, Lydia, and Jordy.

Scott will be met by his mother Donna, father Wayne, and his grand-doggie Duke.

Visitation was held at Abels Funeral Home at 680 Main Street in Dike, Tuesday, May 17, 2022 from 5:30 pm until 7:30 pm and Wednesday May 18 at 10:00 am until the Funeral Service at 11:00 am. Burial followed at the Elmwood Cemetery in Dike, Iowa. Memorials may be directed to the family.
